

Helping newcomers and locals feel at home.

What Will This Move Really Cost?

MOVING BUDGET WORKSHEET

Give the whole move a place in your budget, from the first box to getting your home ready.
Use your own quotes and estimates. Mark unused items N/A; count each expense only once.

Moving from / to: _____

Target move date: _____ Amount available for this move: $ _____

EXPENSE / WHAT TO INCLUDE	ESTIMATE $	ACTUAL $	DUE / NOTES
Movers or truck rental Labor, equipment, mileage, coverage; check quote inclusions.
Packing and protection Boxes, tape, padding, furniture covers, and supplies.
Travel to your new home Fuel, lodging, meals, tolls, and parking.
Vehicle relocation costs Vehicle taxes, title, registration, driver's license, and insurance setup costs.
Storage and extra handling Storage rent, delivery, and loading or unloading fees.
Housing overlap Extra rent or mortgage payments during the transition.
Housing entry costs Rental deposits/fees OR purchase cash due; avoid double counts.
Utility and internet setup Deposits, connection fees, and installation.
Cleaning and clear-out Move-out/move-in cleaning, junk removal, and disposal.
Essential home setup Immediate supplies, repairs, or necessary household purchases.
Household-specific needs Child/pet care, time off, or other costs for your household.
Other: _____ Add an expense not already included above.
Expense subtotal
Contingency allowance / unexpected costs
TOTAL MOVE BUDGET / ACTUAL SPENDING

Vehicle guide: Bringing Your Car to South Carolina \(click to open\)

Before you commit

What still needs a quote? _____

Amount available minus total budget = remaining funds or shortfall: $ _____

Record refundable deposits too: they require cash now. Keep recurring bills in your monthly budget.

Check payment dates and quote inclusions; an estimate is not a confirmed price.

GreenvilleUpstateLife.media

Greenville Upstate Life Media is a Crystal Vision Media Network property.